

Tailgate Topic - Five Question Quiz

[PP 03/18/2018 - 03/31/2018]

Excavation Safety Training

1. The most important document that the inspector has for excavation work is an approved _____ submittal.

2. Type A soil always requires which of the following.
 - ___ a) Shields
 - ___ b) Protective system
 - ___ c) Approved shoring submittal
 - ___ d) Full sheeting
 - ___ e) Guard rails
 - ___ f) All the above

3. There are only two scenarios that allow workers in an excavation to not have installed adequate protective systems. They are:
 - Excavations are made entirely in _____; or
 - Excavations are less than _____ feet in depth and examination of the ground by a _____ provides no indication of a potential _____

4. At the beginning of any construction project that involves trench excavation the contractor will be required to complete which document.
_____ Form _____

5. Fissured or previously disturbed soil is typically Type B?

True _____ or False _____

PRINT EMPLOYEE NAME _____