The Contractors Handbook

Your guide to doing business with the City of Los Angeles

The City purchases billions of dollars of services each year. And it wants to do business with YOU!

Look around the City and you will see everything from potholes being filled, transit lines being operated, fire stations being built, after school programs being managed, and the streets being kept safe from crime. What you may not know is that in providing these services to the Los Angeles, the City purchases billions of dollars every year in supplies, equipment, and professional/personal services. That's billions of dollars for which YOUR business can compete!

This guide has been prepared to serve as an introduction to the City contracting process and a reference guide for your business growth. In it, you will find information about:

- Contracts 101 - Understanding the different types of City contracts
- Vendor Requirements - Becoming competitive in the City marketplace
- Certified for Success - A Primer on City certification
- Get to know BAVN - The City portal for contract opportunities
- Navigating the City - Get to know your City partners
- Staying Current - Important Dates for the City

Consider public contracting to increase your revenues and grow your business!

Vendor Requirements

Becoming competitive in the City marketplace

Not every contract requires the same administrative obligation.
But they all require that you Register with the City.

Administrative Requirements

Please note that the specific requirements for each contracting opportunity varies. You should review the RFP, RFQ, or RFB for details.

Businesses and vendors that contract with the City must comply with federal, state, and local laws and requirements.

To access City business opportunities, you are required to meet these expectations:

- Equal Benefits to All Employees and their Spouses/Partners:
Requires that contractors offer the same health and other benefits to their employees with domestic partners as offered to employees with spouses (regardless of gender or sex)
- Pay a Living Wage and Provide Benefits to Employees:
Requires that contractors comply with all provisions of the Living Wage Ordinance, including paying their employees a minimum “living wage” with health benefits and compensated days off. The “living wage” changes yearly and is updated July 1st of every year.

REMINDER:

The City requires that every person engaged in business in the City of Los Angeles obtain a Business Tax Registration Certificate (BTRC) from the Office of Finance and pay the required tax that helps the City keep you in business!

This also applies to contractors located outside of the City.

Certified for Success

A primer on City certification

City certifications help level the playing field.
There are no requirements to apply and they are FREE.

Benefits of the Certifications

- MBE, WBE, SBE, EBE, DVBE
Provides free marketing exposure as prime contractors are required to reach out to and negotiate in good faith with MBEs, WBEs, SBEs, EBEs, and DVBEs on City contracts.
- DBE
The selection of DBE's is incentivized for prime contractors pursuing Federally funded contracts due to the U.S. Department of Transportations DBE requirements.
- ACDBE
Incentivizes the selection of ACDBEs by prime contractors for funded awards related to the airports.
- SLBE
Provides preference for SLBEs bidding as a prime contractor on City contracts worth $100,000 or less.
- LBE
Provides preference for LBEs bidding as a prime contractor on City contracts in excess of $150,000. Preference may also be granted to non LBE primes utilizing LBE subs.
- TJOP
Provides preference for TJOPs bidding as a prime contractor on City contracts which do not exceed $100,000.
