

FAIR CHANCE INITIATIVE FOR HIRING ORDINANCE (FCIHO) COMPLAINT INTAKE FORM

The City of Los Angeles' FCIHO prohibits Employers from asking or obtaining information about an individual's Criminal History during the job application process. The FCIHO requires that Employers:

- Do not inquire about an Applicant's criminal history on job applications (i.e. job postings, job applications, and/or during an interview)
- Only request a criminal background check AFTER a Conditional Offer of Employment has been made
- If rescinding an offer of employment, Employers are required to provide the Applicant with a copy of: a) the Notice of Rescinded Employment Offer; b) a Written Assessment based on the Applicant's criminal history and the job duties; and c) any documentation supporting the Employer's determination
- Allow the Applicant a "Fair Chance Process" by holding the job open for at least five (5) business days to allow an Applicant time to provide the Employer with information or documentation regarding the accuracy of the Applicant's criminal history or other information that should have been considered in the Employer's assessment, such as evidence of rehabilitation or other mitigating factors
- Comply with the notice/posting requirement of the FCIHO
- Refrain from any form of retaliation against employees who seek to enforce the terms of the FCIHO
