

CAL-OSHA - 2020 IIPP

1. The primary difference between Inpatient Status and Observation Status.

The individual is _____ into a hospital

2. 1. Which statement best describes the new definition of “Serious Injury or Illness”

- a Any hospitalization other than medical observation or diagnostic testing
- b All injuries causing an injury or illness or death in a construction zone
- c Serious or permanent disfigurement
- d Emergency room admittance

3. Regardless whether the injured person is Inpatient or Observation status at a hospital,

BCA policy requires what?

- a The supervisor will accompany the worker to the hospital
- b Report any health and safety hazards to the employer.
- c BCA will report the incident to Cal-OSHA
- d BCA first responder will administer First Aid
- e Call 9-1-1

4. If a Cal-OSHA inspector (rep) arrives and cannot wait for the Safety Engineer’s (or City DOSH rep) arrival you should escort the rep but follow these guidelines.

- i. Verify that the rep has all the necessary _____.
- ii. If possible ask another _____ to accompany/witness the inspection.
- iii. Answer only those questions you are asked, to the _____ of your _____, and should never volunteer information.
- iv. If the rep is asking questions outside the scope of the investigation you should refer the rep to _____.
- v. If Cal/OSHA requests information you do not have at the time of the visit, can you request to submit it later? YES or NO

5. BCA management has determined that inspector are exempt from §5141.1 Protection from Wildfire Smoke regulation requirements?

True ___ <> False ___