

WORKERS COMPENSATION- REPORTING ACCIDENTS

1. Any person who makes or causes to be made any knowingly false statement in order to obtain or deny worker comp benefits or payments is guilty of a felony. If convicted, the person may be subjected to;

- a Fines up to $150,000
- b Termination
- c Serve up to five years in jail
- d b & c
- e a & c

2. What are the benefits of Workers Compensation from the City of Los Angeles?

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> a Child care | <input type="checkbox"/> f Death benefits |
| <input type="checkbox"/> b Permanent disability | <input type="checkbox"/> g Spousal benefits |
| <input type="checkbox"/> c Medical marijuana | <input type="checkbox"/> h Temporary disability |
| <input type="checkbox"/> d Medical care | <input type="checkbox"/> i Transfer opportunities |
| <input type="checkbox"/> e Supplemental job displacement | |

3. How long do you have to report your workplace injury before you risk the right to benefits?

- a One year
- b Never
- c 30 days
- d 1 week

4. Pre-designation is when you name your regular doctor to treat you if you get hurt on the job.

The doctor must have;

- Treated you
- Maintained your medical history and records before your injury and
- Agreed to treat you for a work-related injury or illness before you get hurt or become ill.
- Completed DWC FORM 9783 (7/2014)

True ___ <> False ___

5. Your employer may not pay workers' compensation benefits if you get hurt in a voluntary off-duty recreational, social or athletic activity that is not part of your work-related duties.

True ___ <> False ___