

TSM Five Question Quiz

REINFORCING STEEL PROTECTION

1. Complete the following two sentences regarding trigger heights for fall protection.

a Work over _____ ft with unprotected platforms, scaffolds, or edges of structures (within 6')

b Work over _____ ft with rebar/ or similar projections (rod busters)

2. Wet concrete can be an electrocution hazard since it is a good conductor of electricity?

True <> False

3. Unstable formwork and shoring can injure and even kill you and others working below it.

Some hazards related to formwork and shoring include:

- a Collapse of partial or finished formwork.
- b Working at heights.
- c Drowning
- d Manual material handling and awkward posture.
- e Falling materials and components.
- f Biological injuries
- g Struck by moving machinery and components or tools.

4. Which of the following statements are true?

- a Fresh concrete can cause severe chemical burns to skin and eyes.
- b When working with concrete use the proper PPE.
- c Wash your skin promptly after contact with concrete with clean water.
- d If fresh concrete gets into your eyes, flush immediately and repeatedly with water.
- e If redness or blurring occurs contact a doctor or urgent care facility.

5. Most roofing work requires fall protection over 20'.

True <> False

PRINT EMPLOYEE NAME _____